Monday Morning. May 19, 1862.

No Provisions Yet in the Mines. Elsewhere appears an advertisement, published by command of the Governor, in which it is stated by the Gold Commissioners, Mesers. Ball an . Elwyn, that as yet no provisions have gone forward to Cariboo. The dates of their communications are the 2d and 3d of May respectively. Consequently sixteen days ago, there were in Cariboo only what surplus provisions were left from last fall's supply after feeding the miners who wintered there. The surplus must be very small-so low indeed must the stock be in the Northern Mines till the trains arrive, that the miners who have pushed through such in the Upper House neutralizes its in-dependence, and two in the lower, with au-other in expectancy, have left a record that never can be clean. The country, however, may in the present instance, very properly attribute to the new Councitor who has a-cepted a nomination contrary to his protes-sions, the loss of all independence in the Council. regardless of consequences, will very likely have "short commons." Gov. Douglas has thus announced the spring's effects of the elow, unenergetic, and obstructive policy inaugurated long ago, but which might have been entirely overruled last year. We have no idea whatever that all the ev le that the published documents hint at are of purely governmental origin. Natural causes have had something to do with it. But notwithstand Deen displayed in the Department of Public Works last year, the consequences of the past season would have been scarcely felt.

This apring, to shift the responsibility from the shoulders of the Government, the Trunk lines from Chapman's Bar. Lytton, and Lil. lines from Chapman's Bar, Lytton, and Lillovet, are let out as toll-roads. If then the grantees don't succeed, of course we shall be told that the Government is not to blame We are now told by the Press in a masked apology for the present deficiency of pro-visions, that it is all the fault of our "com-mercial community." We are told they have shown a want of energy. This is shifting the blame from the Governor to the merchants with a vengeance! "Our commercial community" is to blume, is it? No one conversant with commercial operations would ever attempt to account for want of provisions in such a manner except as a blind to screen the real delinquent. If any one at all is to be thanked for the progress of these colonies, it is our merchants and traders. Continually for the last three years they have supplied the country traders and packers, who in turn have supplied the miners. Without such supplies, the miners could not have penetrated into the country It was the liberal credit given by the traders last spring and summer in Cariboo, that saved the country. The traders and miners are equally dependent on our merchants this year. So if there be any party at all to blame, let the blame be put on the right shoulders-where it rightly belongs. Take as a brilliant instance of gubernatorial otstruction, the Trutch contract on the Lillooet route. That contract was left uncompleted last fall entirely through the dilatoriness of those in authority. Every one knows that provisions were stopped from being wagoned through, simply in consequence of the wretched mismanagement in that particular Had it been completed, we are assured that a large surplus of provisions would have been stored at Lillooet for an early start to Cariboo this spring. The real truth however is, that till such time as there is a change of Buking Pans, Sauce Pans, government in British Columbia, the coun- Deed Boxes, Funnels.

try will continue to grown under just such practical abuses. Another Legislative Councillor. " Some men are born great, some achieve greatness; others have greatness thrust upon then." In the latter category is Mr. A. Watson, the Colonial Treasurer. But a brief period ago when the defalcations were discovered in the Treasury, this gentleman was appointed treasurer. The understanding was at the time he accepted office, that he was not to dabble in politics. At least such were his own conditions accepted by Though a very young man, reputedly a good accountant, everybody thought the appointment a very good one. People felt that we had a reliable treasurer, one entirely unlike his predecessor, a gentleman who did not hold his office of treasurer as the price of his vote in the Assembly. But it appears the country have been disappointed. "Evil communications corrupt good manners"-is an old adage; and since Mr. Treasurer Watson has been enseenced in the treasury he has not escaped the insidious influence of the designing individual who with the family compact holds the reigns of power in this colony So Mr Watson was last week made the Hon. Mr. Watson. He now holds a seat in the legislature is a member of the Legis. lative Council! He is now a colonial lordfirst lerd of the treasury - with £500 a year Elsewhere it has been customary to elevate seme of the oldest and wealthiest citizens to the Legislative Council. Men are invariably placed there whose wealth places them above approach - above dependence on a pattry office—free from popular influence. But in this is a specialment, as in the former, and in all other matters, the equeerrative usages of other colonies are not heeded here.

The question is not so much the fittness of things as the expediency of putting tools into both branches of the Legislature to control everything like the free and independent voice of the country. Before the new Concilor accepted his new billet, every one was pleased in having a trensurer—a custodian of the public money—who would not dabble in politics. Now they can only regard his duration of office as the price of obedient votes in the Conneil. The country may now fairly say that there is no check in the wites in the Council. The country may now fairly say that there is no check in the Upper House against the doings of the Lower—no matter how bal they may be. Of the six Councillors, two are absent and will be absent for a year or more. A third is in independent circumstances (Mr. Finlayson), and is here. The other three are also present. They are Judge Cameron, Hon. Mr. Alston, and the Hon. Mr. Watson. Those three dignitaties live—are dependent on their asiaries for a respectable living. As a matter of course, they will do as they are bid, without murmuring. So the only Councillor on whom the country may depend to give a free and independent vore is the Hon. Mr. Finlayson. Occupying the poet of President a free and independent vote is the rion. Arr. Finlayson. Occupying the post of President of the Council, he will be entirely powerless against the three others. We may now have Stamp Acts or any other kind of obnoxious acts ad infinitum. We have always opposed vets ad infinitum. We have always opposed salaried officials being put into the Lexisla-ture— u Lexislature to no too smal. Three such in the Upper House neutralizes its in-

ANTLER CREEK, CARIBOO, April 26th, 1862. EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST : - Men are coming in very fast. There are 400 already arrived and more expected every day. The fluming on Williams Creek communiced two weeks ago, Wood-ward, tunningham & Co. will be washing in a Steele, Bothwick & Co., are putting in their flumes, which will be completed in a week. There done here has been a good deal of prospecting done here already, but nothing new struck.

The Last Chance Creek excitement, will I fear, prove a failure; nearly all the men have left there. The miners on Lightning Creek are not behind. ten days.

Antler is behind this year on account of the blockade below, and the men not coming to saw their lumber out. The ground is not frozen so deep as mig it be expected on account of so little snowfalling. The saw mill will be running soon. There is considerable lumber on hand at the mill.

No serious accidents have happened to any of the men who wintered in Cariboo. A few their fingers and toes frozen, but not bad. Your informent was among the number.

The Cornish Company, on Williams Creek, opposite Steele & Co, have worked nearly all winter in their tunnel, they say it is the best time to work on account of water. The reports are they have struck it rich.

It was with regret that I read in your issue of March 22d or 23d, a report stating that no flour or provision could be got on Antler-only what was engaged last fall. I beg to inform you that there are at least 50,000 pounds of flour for sale on Antier at present, and other articles in proportion Yours &c., SAMUEL H. MYERS.

THE "ELIZA ANDERSON." SAFE .-- The many friends of this steamer and her popu- petry robberies by Indians have been comlar commander were much gratified yesterday morning to behold her towed into the town, the settlement lately formed on the harbor by the gunboat Forward. Captain patch of level ground across Rock Bay. T. Wright, who was left in charge of the The rogues generally commit their depresteamer, succeeded in getting her affinat at dations just before daylight in the morning, and in order to obtain the plunder sometimes thigh water on Saturday and made fast to the cut large holes in the tents, and without rocks until the gunboat, on her way down from New Westminster, steamed along, when she was taken in tow. The only when she was taken in tow. The only damage which the Anderson seems to have sustained are the starting of a plank and kelson, the loss of a few feet of copper, and the breakage of her steampipe.

The Charge of Conspiring to Defraud.

The case of J. M. Robertson, charged with spiring with Aime Marchand to defraud Wells, Fargo & Co., was continued in the Police Court on Saturday last. Mr. McCreight and Mr. Court ney for the prosecution; Mr. Ring and Mr. Bishop for the defence. Mr. Dennes appeared to watch the case for the creditors of Marchand.

With the consent of the counsel for the defence, Marchand was brought into Court and placed in the prisoner's dock, without the service of a writ of habeas corpus Mr. Pendergast made a short information accusing Marchand of conspiring with Robertson in the commission of the frauds, and in reply to a question from Mr. Ring, Mr. Pendergast said he had had an interview with Marchand and had asked him to furnish an order on Robert-

Assistant Gold Commissioner to Colonial Secretary.

Lytron, 3rd May, 1802.

It is with much pleasure the 11 can now inform this Excellency of the busy and prosperous state of the District, after its long stagnation from the tength and severity of the past whiter. The fl-w of immigration to the mines in the upper country continues and increased shifty, and it is with satisfaction that I have remarked that most of the immigrants who pass, appear from their style and means of travelling, to be possessed of some capital, although, there are many needy adventures amongst them. Many have passed with the intention of locating land in the ne gliborhood of the proposed lines of wagon roads, and establishing for themselves bermane I home-steads, so that this season, I trust, will asy the coundation for supplying the cereal wants of the country, from the manual labor of its own the country, from the manner.

The Wagon Roads both to and from Lytton are proxiesing rapidly, and from the numerous applications for work, there will be no difficulty in supplying the demand for labor On the road near Boston Bar more than 190 men are already employed, and on the Lytton side, and at Jack-mss Mountain, the works are in course of progress. On the road towards means for transporting the encessary of visit 18.

The Fraser River has risen so high that all means of water transport is stopped, and many of the pack animals have not yet recovered from the effects of the severe water. The price of provision is consequently high. Flour still remains as high as 25c, Beans 28s.; Kiec 28c; Bacon 375;c; other articles in proportion and it is anticipated that these high rates will continue during the present season, or at least, until the completion of some portion of the wagon roads

Matrimonial Swindling in Paris.

Matrimonial Swindling in Paris.

The Tribunal of Correctional Police of Paris, last week, ried a remarkable case of swindling, in which three persons were implicated—Protin, the "matrimonial advocate," whose advertisement have for some time past been frequently published in the journals; Prosper Mey; a wine merchant; and Achile Lobey, a commission segent.

At the opening of the trial a medical certificate was put in, stating that Protin was unable to appear, being at the time in a state of intellectual prostration, bordering on insanity. The tribunal accordingly decreded that his trial should be postponed, and proceeded with the charge against the other two accused. The principal witness was a M. Mismac, a gentleman of property, residing at Chartilly. He deposed that in January, 1859, the prisoner. Mey, came twice to solicit his custom for wine, and on the second time complimented him on the beauty of his daughter. He soon afterwards came again, and stated that he was suborized by a friend of his, named Lobey, to make an offer of marriage to Mile. Mismac. He represented his friend to be the son of a gentleman of considerable property, residing at Boulogne sur.Mer, that she is father's decease he would inherit about 100,0007, and that meanwhile he had an excellent wholesale wine trade yielding a clear yearly profit of about 15,000f,, and account-books were produced to prove this fact. As the witness still hesitated he was referred to several parties for information proves the fact. As the witness still lesitated he was referred to several parties for information, we have his daughter 20,000f, as all the answers week havorable, he at last consented to the marriage, which was cell-brated in April, 1859, and that all the persons to whom he had been referred were confederates of Lobey, Mey and Pronn, Atterspending his wife's fortune, Lobey forged several bills of exchange, and in June last was convicted the forgery, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment, it was proved that Protin actually received 2,500f, for hi UNUSUAL SEVERITY OF THE WINTER IN MAN ENGLAND AND CANADA.—All accounts agree that in the New England States and the British prov-inces show storms have been more prevalent dur-ing the past winter than for twenty years back. In Boston there has been sleighing, without inter-ruption, all through the winter, and the snow mi-les in the street to some considerable depth. A correspondent of a Boston journal, writing from Asine, assess thus of the condition of that region that "it was going—they could now see the copy of the fences?" Meaning what he said to be taken interaity. One only need come here to be con-venced that it was no joke. It is a strange sight, even to the oldest inhautants, to see so much show on the ground at this season of the year. It sleigning has been good since the first of Dec. in ber. It will be the muchio of April before the snow here the shows a strange of the strange of the snow and the strange of the snow the strange of the snow that it is all going. ner, It will be the initiation April before the show is all gone. I hope, ere long, to eable to inform you that I have seen terra firms, but as I am going aim further east, my expectations may not be real-ized.—Cor. S. F. Butterin.

When the burs are susked a few days, they close up in the form of sold cones, and then the little spears of gree, grass begin to emerge from among the lamines, forming an ornament of rare and simple beauty.

MEMORY OF THE ELEPHANT.—A female elephant belonging to a gentleman in Calcutta, who was ordered from the upper country to Chittagong, in the route thither broke loose from her keeper, and making her way into the woods, was lost. The keeper made every excuse to vindicate himself, which the master of the animal would not listen to, but branded the man with carelessness, or something worse; for it was instantly supposed that he had sold the elephant. He was tried for it and condemned to work on the roads for life, and his wife and children were sold as slaves. About 12 years afterward this man, who was well known to be acquainted with breaking elephants, was sent into the country to assist in eatching wild ones. They came upon a herd, and this man faucied he saw among the group his long lost elephant, for which he had been condemned. He resolved to approach it; nor could the strongest remonstrance of the party dissuade him from the attempt. Having reached the animal, he spoke to her, when she immediately recognized his voice; she waved her trunk in the sair in token of sultation, and spontaneously knelt down and allowed him to anount her neck. She afterwards assisted in taking other eephants, and decoyed three young ones, to which she had given birth in her absence. The keeper returned, and the singular circumstances attending this recovery being told, he regained his character; and as a compensation for his unmerited sufferings, had a pension settled on him for life. This elephant was afterwards in possession of Warren Hastings, when Governor-General of Hindostan.

De Sir John Arnott, Mayor of Cork (Ireland), has invested $200,000 in the establishment of a monster bakery and milling concern with the view of selling to the poor at first cost during this season of scarcity and distress.

The amount expended by the United State Government in the purchase of firenrins since th beginning of the rebelion, is $22,090,000.

BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, AND ULCERS.—
The treatment erroneously pursued in these cases, is to drive the disease inwards, thus making matters far worse than by allowing it to take its natural course, as it only breaks our elsewhere with an aspect ten times more dreadful than before. Holloway's celebrated Ointment and Pills, however, act in conjunction, the one internally and the other externally, and by the conjunction of these two inestimable specifies, all descriptions of external diseases are speedily and rapidally removed, even when all other means fail.

Only Give it a Fair Trial.—We ask no more of any one, than to give Jayne's Expectur-int a fair trial, to prove that it will cure the various diseases for which it is recommended sooner and more effectually than any other remedy. You therefore, who suffer with Pulmonary Affections, should not delay, but immediately procure a bottle of this Expect rant, and by its use not only save yourselves much suffering, but probably from an early death.

ing a wide-spread celebrity in all parts of the State.
It is sufficient evidence of their great merit to observe the large quan fites shipped by our principal Wine Merchants to every par of the country
Sainsevain, however, like all other manufacturers of new anonyments, articles, has to contend with merrupuous parties, who are introducing a spurious mosticus compounds are put up in the same style of bottles, labels, etc., so as to pass for the Sainsevain brand We call aftention to this fact so that our citizens may be upon their guard, and that when they ask for Sainsevain's Bifters, see that they get them. As pure Wine is destined to drive from use all alcoholic decoctions, so these Bifters will soon take the place of the schulerated preparations which now flood our market. Those desiring a pure and
